

MAR 23, 1995

Supermodel contest on display

Raycom Inc. and HBO Enterprises are predicting "The Ford Supermodel of the World" contest will be picked up in 80%-85% of the country when it is offered for syndication in April.

The two-hour special filmed in Maui, Hawaii, offers a behind-the-scenes look at the 34 models who competed for a $250,000 contract with Ford Models and the title of Ford Supermodel of the World 1994. The show is hosted by Christie Brinkley and includes segments by models Lucky Vanous and Patricia Velasquez.

The show will air during an April 1-30 window.

The contest was originally shown on pay-per-view by Ford Models and Time Warner Sports last October. □

